

YEAR
August
2026

PRESENTER
Anand Kumar

Clockit

Strategic Brand Identity Creation.

WELCOME!

Strategy Presentation

01

Introduction

About Brand

Bussiness Goals

Personas

02

Competitor Analysis

Local premium cafés

The Rameshwaram Cafe

Barista

Café Coffee Day (CCD)

03

Visual Direction

Mood Boards.

Your feedback

NEXT

INTRODUCTION

About The Brand

Bringing Modern Café Culture Closer to Home.

Clockit is a contemporary food and coffee brand created for the evolving café culture of Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities. It brings together continental food, quality coffee and a relaxed social atmosphere in a way that feels modern, approachable and familiar.

More than just a place to eat, Clockit is designed around the way people spend time today. A quick coffee, a meal with friends, a casual work session or a family outing can all happen under one roof.

The idea is to make continental dining feel less distant and more everyday, combining good food, coffee and good times at a price and experience that people can return to regularly.

Clockit aims to become a familiar part of the city, creating a café people discover with friends, return to often and eventually think of as their place.

NEXT

INTRODUCTION

Bussiness Goals

Introducing a contemporary food & coffee culture beyond metros.

GOAL 1

Make Continental Dining Feel Local & Accessible

Clockit should introduce continental food and café culture without making it feel expensive, unfamiliar, or “too metro.” The goal is to make pizza, pasta, sandwiches, coffee and café-style experiences part of everyday dining in Tier 2 & 3 cities.

GOAL 2

Own the City’s Everyday. Hangout

Clockit should become more than a place to eat. Build a comfortable social space where students, young professionals, friends and families can meet, work, celebrate and spend time. This fits the growing role of cafés as social and leisure spaces in smaller cities.

GOAL 3

Build a Format That Can Travel Across Cities

Create a recognisable Clockit experience that stays consistent across locations while adapting to local tastes, pricing and demand. The business should be designed for repeat visits, efficient operations and expansion into multiple Tier 2 & 3 markets. Nearly 94% of restaurant operators surveyed by Grant Thornton/NRAI plan expansion in these markets, making scalability a major opportunity.

NEXT

INTRODUCTION

User Personas

Understanding who chooses Clockit helps define the brand beyond food and coffee. In Tier 2 & 3 cities, the opportunity lies with people looking for a modern experience that feels aspirational, social and still accessible.

The Aspirational College Crowd

Age: 18–23 Years

Profile: College students and young adults discovering café culture through Instagram, friends and food delivery apps.

What they want: Affordable continental food, cold coffee, a good-looking space and somewhere to hang out for 1–2 hours.

The First-Job Socialiser

Age Group: 23–30 Years

Profile: Young professionals with their first disposable income. They are willing to spend more on food when the experience feels worth it.

What they want: Good coffee, reliable food, comfortable seating, Wi-Fi and a place that works for both conversation and casual work.

The Modern Family Explorer

Age Group: 30–40 Years

Profile: Parents and working adults who are becoming more comfortable trying global cuisines. They want to introduce their family to something different, but still expect hygiene.

What they want: Food the whole family can enjoy, familiar continental options, quality coffee and a pleasant environment without the formality of fine dining.

COMPETITORS

Local premium cafés

Independent premium cafés that combine specialty coffee, Continental food and a curated ambience, targeting younger customers seeking quality and experience beyond mainstream chains.

Positioning:

Premium food + artisanal coffee + aesthetic social experience.

01

Design Elements

Simple and practical visuals focused on food, drinks, pricing, and offers. The look is more functional and sales-driven than heavily branded.

02

Typography

Clear, straightforward typography that makes menus, prices, offers, and key information easy to notice and read.

03

Experience/Presentation

Focused mainly on serving good food and coffee at a reasonable price, with the café acting as a convenient local spot rather than a highly curated experience.

NEXT

COMPETITORS

The Rameshwaram Cafe

The Rameshwaram Cafe is a premium South Indian café/QSR built around authentic food, tradition and fast service. Its identity strongly connects with South Indian heritage, freshness and the idea of food that feels homemade.

01

Design Elements

Food-first visuals with rich, appetising photography and strong emphasis on traditional South Indian dishes.

Inspired by the values of Dr. APJ A spirit of Rameshwaram, we bridge every corner of India. With cultur in every detail, each plate we serv authenticity, and soul.

02

Typography

Bold, clean typography with a modern feel, balanced by traditional storytelling and heritage-focused messaging.

03

Experience/Presentation

Fast, accessible dining with a strong focus on authenticity, freshness and consistency. The brand combines traditional food with a modern QSR-style experience.

NEXT

BARISTA

COMPETITORS

Barista

Barista is positioned as an established Indian café brand built around coffee culture, café experience, and everyday social interaction. Founded in 2000, the brand presents itself as a pioneer of coffee culture in India and emphasizes a warm, friendly, relaxed environment where customers can enjoy coffee and conversations. Barista currently states that it has 500+ cafés across 160+ cities, with presence beyond India in Sri Lanka and Maldives.

Why This Research?

Studying competitors helps identify market patterns, understand existing communication styles, and discover opportunities for Grofience to create a unique position in the financial education space. By analyzing their approach, we can build a differentiated brand experience for students and parents.

01

Design Elements

Warm, coffee-led visuals with food photography and a familiar, approachable café feel. Focuses on coffee culture and product appeal.

02

Typography

Clean, modern and highly readable typography with simple hierarchy. Keeps the focus on products and imagery.

03

Experience/Presentation

Casual social café experience combining coffee, food and desserts. Strong emphasis on familiarity, comfort and café culture.

NEXT

COMPETITORS

CCD

Café Coffee Day (CCD) is a well-known Indian café brand focused on coffee, casual dining and social experiences. It positions its cafés as accessible spaces for conversations, work and everyday meetups, supported by a broad menu of beverages, snacks and desserts.

Positioning:

Affordable coffee + casual hangout + everyday social experience.

01

Design Elements

Youthful, coffee-focused visuals with strong product imagery. The brand feels casual, familiar and social, built around coffee and conversations.

02

Typography

Simple and accessible typography with clear hierarchy. The overall style feels friendly and mainstream rather than premium or experimental.

03

Experience/Presentation

Positioned as an affordable hangout space for coffee, conversations and food. Offers coffee, chilled drinks, snacks, desserts and café merchandise, with a strong focus on accessibility and everyday social experiences.

NEXT

MOOD BOARD 01

Mood Board includes a collection of visual elements that define the initial direction, aesthetic, colors, typography, and overall feeling of the financial education brand identity.

DIRECTION:

A geometric visual style creates a clean, structured, and modern identity. Simple shapes, balanced compositions, and minimal graphic elements give the brand a distinctive yet approachable look.

TYPOGRAPHY:

Clean geometric fonts paired with bold display type create a modern and organised visual language while keeping communication clear and readable.

COLORS:

A balanced palette of bold accent colours and soft neutrals keeps the identity fresh, modern, and visually consistent.

BRAND WORDS:

Modern, Geometric, Clean, Structured, Bold, Approachable

NOTES:

Geometric forms create a strong visual system that feels contemporary, memorable, and easy to apply across the brand.

*Please note : The colours may change in design process>but this shows you a good direction for brand.

Geometric forms create a clear and confident identity.

Structured visuals make the brand feel modern and organised.

Clean geometric typography keeps the identity simple and contemporary.

Geometric layouts frame food in a clean, modern way.

Consistent geometric elements create a recognisable visual language.

Geometric branding in everyday touchpoints

Simple shapes communicate ideas clearly and consistently.

MOOD BOARD 02

Mood Board includes a collection of visual elements that shape the brand’s personality, visual direction, typography, colours, illustrations, and overall café experience.

DIRECTION:

This direction explores a fun, doodle-driven identity that feels casual, expressive, and full of character. Hand-drawn illustrations, playful lettering, and unexpected graphic details give the café a distinctive personality while keeping the overall look contemporary and approachable.

TYPOGRAPHY:

Playful display fonts paired with clean type create a fun, expressive, and easy-to-read identity.

COLORS:

A warm, energetic colour palette paired with neutral tones creates a lively yet balanced atmosphere. Bold accent colours bring the fun, while softer backgrounds keep the identity welcoming and contemporary.

BRAND WORDS:

Fun, Playful, Expressive, Social, Creative, Approachable

NOTES:
The identity should feel like a café with its own personality, rather than a conventional food brand. Doodles, illustrations, handwritten details, and playful compositions make the experience more memorable and give the brand a recognisable visual signature.

*Please note : The colours may change in design process>but this shows you a good direction for brand.

Hand-drawn logo accents create a friendly marker-style typography adds a sense of movement and youth.

Relatable, illustrations keep young learners engaged.

Doodle-style Menu

A identity that reflect brand

A Playful Visual Language

An Identity That Connects

THANK YOU!!